

Magical Moonlit Halloween Adventure

Gather 'round, kids, for a tale that's bright,
On Halloween's eve, under the moon's light.
Where pumpkins glow with a cheeky grin,
And the air tingles with magic within!

Ghosts and witches, they dance and twirl,
In this enchanting, mystical world.
Where fortunes are told by the brave and bold,
And stories of Halloween are joyfully retold.

It's a night for fun, for laughs, for play,
For bobbing for apples in a jolly way!
So sing with me, to a tune so sweet,
As we tap our feet to the Halloween beat:

"Jack-o-lanterns shining round,
In the moonlight's shimmering gown.
Goblins giggle, witches weave,
On this magical Halloween eve.

Halloween, oh Halloween,
Where the future's a mystery yet unseen,
Halloween, dear Halloween,
Is the night where magic is the queen!"

So let's jump in, let's laugh and scream,
On this wonderfully spooky Halloween!
Come, let's celebrate, let's shout with glee,
In the world of Halloween, where we're all free to be!
